Permissible Marketing and Fundraising Disclosures: Gilead Community Services, Inc. may make disclosures of Your Protected Health Information to provide follow up contact to you regarding upcoming appointments, treatment alternatives, health-related benefits, programs, services, events and functions which may be of interest to you. Gilead may also contact you for certain fundraising activities.

All other uses or disclosures will only be made with Your specific written authorization, which may be revoked, except to the extent it has already been relied upon.

Special rules for Psychiatric, Drug and Alcohol, and HIV-related protected information:

Protected Psychiatric Information: State law provides special protections when it comes to psychiatric information (e.g., communications between a psychiatrist, psychologist, licensed professional counselor, and licensed social worker, and those working under their supervision, and his or her client). Except for treatment, or Gilead business and administrative operations, psychiatric communications will not be disclosed, without Your specific written consent, unless the disclosure is made: (i) to another health care Provider for the purpose of treatment and diagnosis (with notice to You); (ii) when there is substantial risk of imminent physical injury to You or others and the disclosure is necessary to place You in a treatment facility; (iii) to a court as part of a court ordered psychiatric examination; (iv) in a civil court proceeding if You introduce Your mental condition as an element of a claim or defense; (v) after Your death, when Your condition is introduced by a party claiming or defending through or as a beneficiary of You and a court finds it to be in the interests of justice to disclose such psychiatric information; (vi) to the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Health or the State Department of Mental Health & Addiction Services in connection with an inspection or investigation; (vii) to the family or legal representative of a homicide committed by You; (viii) to individuals or agencies involved in the collection of fees for psychiatric services; (ix) to researchers who meet strict confidentiality standards; and (x) to the State Department of Mental Health & Addiction Services in connection with Gilead Community Services, Inc. receiving payment for services funded by such agency (with Notice to You).

Protected HIV-Related Information: Special rules under State law also limit the disclosure of HIV-related information. According to the rules, Gilead may not disclose such information without Your specific written authorization, unless such disclosure is: (i) made to a public health official as required or allowed by State or Federal law; (ii) a health care Provider for the purpose of treatment; (iii) a medical examiner to determine the cause of death; (iv) to a Gilead Community Services, Inc. Committee or another organization for the purpose of oversight or monitoring of Gilead Community Services, Inc.; (v) to a health care worker experiencing a significant occupational exposure to HIV infection; (vi) pursuant to a court order; (vii) life and health insurers; (viii) to Your partner by a physician caring for You and Your partner if it is believed by the physician that Your partner is at significant risk for transmission; and (ix) if You are a minor, to Your parents or legal guardian, unless the physician determines there is cause (as defined by law) not to disclose to them.

Protected Drug and Alcohol Information: Federal law establishes certain protections for any patient identifiable information relating to drug and alcohol treatment, treatment referral, research and/or rehabilitation, (but excludes protection for a diagnosis of drug overdose or alcohol intoxication or a diagnosis made solely for the purpose of providing evidence for use by law enforcement authorities). As a general rule, protected drug and alcohol information is confidential and may not be disclosed without Your authorization or pursuant to Federal law. Exceptions for disclosure of Protected drug and alcohol information without Your authorization are as follows: (i) to medical personnel to the extent necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency; (ii) to qualified personnel for the purpose of conducting research, management audits, program evaluation, provided You are not identified in any report; (iii) pursuant to a court order where good cause for such disclosure has been established; (iv) communications between a program and an entity and an affiliated covered entity having direct administrative control over our program; (v) to a business associate performing services on Gilead Community Services, Inc.'s behalf; (vi) limited communications with law enforcement regarding a crime committed or threatened by You on our premises; (vii) the reporting of incidents of suspected child abuse and neglect to the appropriate state authorities; (viii) to the FDA when they assert that Your health may be threatened by an error in the manufacture, labeling, or sale of a product under FDA jurisdiction; and (ix) communications for the reporting of vital statistics, to authorized agencies investigating an individual's cause of death, and to prevent multiple enrollments in certain programs as permitted or required by law.

Your Rights Relating to Your Protected Health Information:

- You have the right to request certain restrictions on the use of Your Protected Health Information for treatment, payment and our operations. However, we are not required to honor such restrictions.
- The right to receive communications of Protected Health Information from Gilead Community Services, Inc. by other means or locations;
- The right to inspect and copy Protected Health Information (the request must be in writing), information collected for use in a court proceeding, or certain other information protected by Federal law governing clinical laboratories;
- The right to request to amend Protected Health Information so long as the amendment is accurate and complete:
- The right to revoke your Authorization and Consent except to the extent relied upon by notifying, in writing, the Gilead Community Services, Inc.'s Program Director for the Program in which you are receiving services.
