

Summer Retreat in Waterville Valley Resort

Enjoy a one week getaway at the Golden Eagle Lodge in the charming pedestrian village located in New Hampshire's White Mountain Forest. Waterville Valley Resort is the place for hiking, fishing, biking, running, golf, tennis, swimming, indoor ice skating, and many more pursuits! Park your car and everything is in walking distance or hop on the complimentary shuttle bus or trolley that will take you to your destination. Home of Margaret & H.A. Rey Center, authors of the Curious George children's book series, the Rey's were artists and adventurers, historians and naturalists, and made Waterville Valley their summer residence.

With accommodations for 4–6 people, the Golden Eagle Lodge will transport you back to an era when grand hotels populated New Hampshire's White Mountain landscape, hosting distinguished visitors in the lavish, extravagant style they were so accustomed to. After a long day of activities, here you will find the space you need to relax and unwind.

Item Includes: Accommodations at the Golden Eagle Lodge for four to six people in June, July or August 2018.

Donated by: Kathy Ekstrom

