

A Shoreline Community Conversation for teens and adults who want to succeed in challenging times.

Compassion Counts: Weathering the Adolescent Storm in a Pressure Filled World

Wednesday, January 31, 2018

6:00-8:30 p.m.

Old Saybrook High School Auditorium

1111 Boston Post Road

Light refreshments will be served from 6-6:30 p.m.

Snow Date Tues, March 20, 2018*

Join us for a dynamic evening! Be inspired! Teens, parents/caregivers & teachers will learn how to:

- Keep communication positive
- Foster grit and resilience
- Harness the hidden power of imperfection

MODERATOR

Dan Osborne, CEO / Gilead Community Services

FACILITATORS

Tom Allen, Ph.D., Founder / Pathways Center for Learning and Behavioral Health

Andy Buccarro, LCSW, LADC, Founder / Project Courage Substance Abuse Treatment Center

Alicia Farrell, Ph.D., Cognitive Psychologist & Founder / Clearview Consulting

.....
This is a FREE event.

You may register online at <https://weatheringtheadolescentstorm.eventbrite.com>

For more information: Contact Lucy McMillan at 860-343-5300 or lmcmillan@gileadcs.org

PARTNERS

- Acadia Healthcare • Brennan Family Consulting, LLC • Clearview Consulting • Clinton PTA • Comer Rudd-Gates, ATR, LPC & Linda Nickerson, MA • Community Foundation of Middlesex County • Connecticut Valley Hospital • Elements Behavioral Health • Essex Community Fund • Essex Education Group • Executive Education Group • Gilead Community Services
- Rushford: A Hartford Healthcare Partner • KUHN Employment Opportunities • Middlesex Hospital • MLA Counseling Services, LLC • Newport Academy • Old Saybrook High School • Old Saybrook Youth & Family Services
- Pathways Center for Learning & Behavioral Health • Project Courage Substance Abuse Treatment Center • Recovery Centers of America • Right Path House Sober Living for Women • River Valley Services • Shoreline Recovery
- Tri-Town Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition