Improving Lives, Building Futures

2023 Annual Report

LEGACY SOCIETY

We are truly grateful to the members of Gilead's Legacy Society. Mark Ludwig, Jane Sinisgalli-Carta & Louis Carta share why they are committed to investing in Gilead's future.

"In the many years we have been involved with Gilead we have watched it grow into an essential part of our community and we have witnessed how great the benefits are to the individuals needing help. We want our commitment to Gilead to continue as long as possible and by contributing just a little bit to that after we are gone makes our souls very happy."

- Jane & Lou Carta

"I recently became a member of the Gilead Legacy Society and was asked to offer some thoughts on what prompted me to include Gilead in my long term plans.

The answer is short and sweet: 1. There is an enormous need for assistance for those with mental health issues in our state and throughout the country, and 2. Gilead is an outstanding organization that provides life changing support to people in our area. By helping their clients become productive members of society, Gilead enriches the lives of often marginalized individuals and benefits society in general. I know first hand about the quality and commitment of the staff at Gilead. My son Ben has been a client for over fifteen years and we have been so impressed with the commitment and care that his case managers and others who have worked with him have provided.

The metaphor that is offered at ceremonies welcoming new Legacy Society members is that of ripples produced in a pond when a pebble is tossed into the water. Each pebble (donation) generates ripples that continue to expand. The multiple small ripples are additive over time resulting in waves of support that make an enormous difference for Gilead's clients. I would encourage others in the community to consider tossing a pebble into that pond to help ensure Gilead's future and more importantly the futures of those with mental illness in our region."

- Mark Ludwig

2023: THRIVING THROUGH COMPASSION & GENEROSITY

Gilead, like many other organizations, families and individuals will consider 2023 the official start to the period fondly known as “after COVID.” The pandemic that we never could have imagined and, in some ways, are finding hard to forget, impacted many aspects of our lives. And yet, at Gilead, we have continued to experience and witness examples of growth and recovery that inspire us every day. Countless individuals and families have experienced hope and recovery through compassionate care, meaningful relationships, and high-quality person-centered treatment. As a result, resilience has become a hallmark of Gilead, both for those who provide and receive support here. We are looking back at 2023 and forward to the future with appreciation for our experiences of recovery, thankfulness for our opportunities for growth, and joy for the many reasons we have to celebrate!

APPRECIATION FOR RECOVERY

In March, we officially declared the end of Gilead’s staffing crisis which had led to as many as 80 vacancies throughout the agency. In May, we officially removed the mask requirement for all Gilead staff based on the expiration of the Governor’s executive order. These decisions represent recovery from two significant organizational challenges that threatened to destabilize Gilead’s continuum of care. For those in our lives who experience mental health and addiction challenges, every day can bring experiences and choices that threaten to destabilize their lives and the people they care about. This is what makes the journey of hope and recovery so powerful and so meaningful. At the end of a year filled with reminders of our collective fragility, two men who have experienced the profound impact of recovery, ended the year at our Quizine event by sharing their stories of strength and resiliency which inspired the crowd and should inspire us all to continue to fight for this profound journey that we call Recovery!

THANKFULNESS FOR GROWTH

In May, we completed the integration of Gilead and Oak Hill’s administrative departments by combining our facilities and human resources teams. Integrating these two departments officially completed a process toward administrative integration that we have been working on for several years. Now, we are proud to say that Gilead and Oak Hill are working together to provide resources and support to our programs with an eye toward future opportunities for growth!

Gilead has seen growth in many of our programs, services and initiatives over the course of this past year. Our Farrell Treatment Program in New Britain completed its first full year providing a new model of addiction treatment support that maximizes best practices in the field of recovery while maintaining the special qualities that Farell has become known for. In addition, Gilead has experienced growth through a new Case Management program, an expanding Community Support program, and rapidly growing services and referrals to our Mental Health Resource Center.

Most significantly, Gilead has experienced tremendous growth in the area of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). We have committed to a vision to consider racial diversity, equity and inclusion as a part of every major decision and to create a safe and affirming environment that promotes belonging, seeks racial justice, and fosters inclusivity. Gilead's new DEI plan and policy are first steps toward living this vision and growing as a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive place to work and receive care.

REASONS TO CELEBRATE

There are so many reasons to celebrate! The year started with news from our accrediting body (CARF) that Gilead was receiving a full

3-year accreditation based on the high quality of services that we provide. The year ended with an announcement at Quizine that Gilead had achieved its 10-year goal of reaching a $1 million dollar endowment and that Gilead had received its first two legacy gifts. In between these amazing accomplishments, Gilead was recognized for our organization's impact on fair housing law and by the Middlesex County YMCA for our outstanding navigation services. So many reasons to celebrate!

Recovery and growth are often filled with challenges and painful experiences that test us, form us, and ultimately, reflect who we are and who we are becoming. Looking back at 2023, we are extremely proud of the many examples of recovery and growth that Gilead experienced and witnessed over the past year. We hope that Gilead's journey inspires you as it inspires us as we look ahead to 2024 and beyond.

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Thank you to all the volunteers that have supported Gilead's mission this year!

Gilead was honored to be chosen as the non-profit recipient of the 2nd annual Come Together CT charity event. The event was organized by Brian Santoro of Consigli Construction Co. Three hundred people gathered on a warm July evening at Arrigoni Winery in Portland, CT to enjoy live music, food trucks, raffle prizes and a cornhole tournament. The event was a huge success exceeding his goal and raising over $27,200.

Thank you Brian for dedicating your time, energy and effort into planning this successful fundraiser and ensuring that no detail was missed!
